RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

BUZZFEED

New York, New York
October 2015 – Present
Product Designer

Currently leading the design of BuzzFeed's quiz products, across web, iOS, Android, and internal tools. Set group strategy and processes, mentor interns and other designers. Design, ship, and learn through A/B tests and data analysis. Give and solicit feedback from design, product, engineering, and users throughout the product lifecycle. Prototype complex UX flows using appropriate tools – from paper to code. Plan, recruit, moderate, analyze and share results of user interviews and usability studies. Contribute to, maintain, and train engineers and designers on Solid, BuzzFeed's CSS styleguide. Advocate for accessibility and performance as integral parts of user experience. Curate, organize, and cohost biweekly "Design Club" speaker series.

SPARTLE
